

The Wimbleball Lake Story

EXMOOR

NATIONAL PARK

Wimbleball Lake is an outdoor area with a lake, lakeside walks and an activity centre

This means it is a place where I can spend time in the countryside

When I arrive to visit Wimbleball Lake

I might see:

The car park

The machine where people buy a ticket to park their car

A building with toilets inside

A cafe

When I visit Wimbleball Lake

I might see:

The lake

A noticeboard

A large stone dam

A play area

When I visit Wimbleball Lake

I might see:

Boats

Butterflies

Wild flowers

Grey squirrels

When I visit Wimbleball Lake

I might hear:

People enjoying activities such as sailing

Water loving birds like cormorants

Insects, such as bees

Water lapping against the boats and the edges of the lake

When I visit Wimbleball Lake

I might touch or feel:

Rough bark on the trees

The movement of a boat if we take a trip on one.

The wind blowing on my face

A stony path

When I visit Wimbleball Lake

I might taste:

Food and drink
from the café

My picnic

When I visit Wimbleball Lake

I might smell:

Coffee from the cafe

Most of all Wimbleball Lake is a place where I can enjoy time outdoors

Some additional information for my visit

- This Sensory Story starts from the pay and display car park at Wimbleball Lake Activity Centre TA22 9NU
- This car park has public toilets
- There is a cafe next to the car park – opening times vary by season
