

The Simonsbath and Wheal Eliza Story

EXMOOR

---

NATIONAL PARK

Simonsbath and Wheal Eliza is an outdoor area with a walk along the river to an old mineworks and ruined cottage

This means it is a place where I can spend time in the countryside

When I arrive to visit Simonsbath and Wheal Eliza

I might see:

The car park

An Exmoor National Park information board

Toilets

A pub called the Exmoor Forest Inn

When I visit Simonsbath and Wheal Eliza

I might see:

A wooden signpost

The river

A big wooden gate

Sheep

When I visit Simonsbath and Wheal Eliza

I might see:

Tall grass

A ruined cottage

A bridge

A saw mill where trees are sawn into logs

When I visit Simonsbath and Wheal Eliza

I might hear:

A tractor driving past

Birds

Water in the river

Wood being cut in the saw mill

When I visit Simonsbath and Wheal Eliza

I might touch or feel:

Smooth slate

Mud beneath
my feet

Stone walls

A stony path

When I visit Simonsbath and Wheal Eliza

I might taste:

Lunch

When I visit Simonsbath and Wheal Eliza

I might smell:

Freshly sawn
wood

Pony poo

Heather

Most of all Simonsbath and Wheal Eliza is a place where I can enjoy time outdoors

Some additional information for my visit

- This Sensory Story starts from the Exmoor National Park pay and display car park at Ashcombe TA24 7SH
- This car park has public toilets
- There is a pub and tea room close to the car park

The Simonsbath and Wheal Eliza Story

EXMOOR

---

NATIONAL PARK

Produced For Exmoor National Park by Access & Inclusion UK 2023
www.accessandinclusion.com