

The Valley of Rocks Story

EXMOOR

---

NATIONAL PARK

The Valley of Rocks is an outdoor area with cliffs and rock formations

This means it is a place where I can spend time in the countryside

When I arrive to visit the Valley of Rocks

I might see:

The car park

A sign for the cafe

A stone building with toilets inside

A wooden shelter painted green

When I visit the Valley of Rocks

I might see:

Large groups of rocks

Goats

A cricket pitch

A wooden bench

When I visit the Valley of Rocks

I might see:

The sea

Bracken

Flowers like gorse

Gaps between the rocks

When I visit the Valley of Rocks

I might hear:

The wind blowing

Stonechat bird 'song' – like 2 stones being knocked together

People playing cricket

Goats bleating

When I visit the Valley of Rocks

I might touch or feel:

Large boulders

Soft grass

The tarmac path

Heather

When I visit the Valley of Rocks

I might taste:

Food and drink in the cafe

My picnic if we have brought one.

Salty air

When I visit the Valley of Rocks

I might smell:

Goat poo

The sea

Food from the
cafe

Most of all the Valley of Rocks is a place where I can enjoy time outdoors.

Some additional information for my visit

- This Sensory Story starts from the Exmoor National Park Valley of Rocks Upper pay and display car park EX35 6JH
- This car park has public toilets
- There is a cafe near to the car park which is open in season

The Valley of Rocks Story

Produced For Exmoor National Park by Access & Inclusion UK 2023
www.accessandinclusion.com